NEW ACQUISITIONS OF THE IPIS LIBRARY

Grellet G., Mainguet M., Soumille P.(1982) La République Centrafricaine, Presse Universitaire de Franc: Paris, 127p.

IPIS LATEST REPORTS

From conflict resources to sustainable development: Memorandum by Fatal Transactions on the European Union's contribution to natural resource management in Africa

(July 2008 – Fatal Transactions - IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/corporate-social-responsibility.php>

IPIS drafted this publication for Fatal Transactions. The Memorandum looks specifically at the European Commission's contribution to a sustainable exploitation of natural resources in Africa and a sustainable supply chain. It also assesses its approach on conflict resources. The paper provides an analysis of the Commission's trade policy, development cooperation, foreign and security policy, cooperation under bilateral and multilateral agreements, humanitarian aid and financial assistance. It also takes a look at the Commission's view on integrating and implementing external actions in its internal policies (e.g. energy and environment) in order to promote a sustainable management of natural resources abroad.

L'Afrique révisé les contrats miniers.

(July 2008 – Le Monde Diplomatique – IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/natural-resources.php>

Article on the current contract revision projects throughout Africa.

Mapping Conflict Motives: Katanga update: December 2007-May 2008.

(25/06/2008 – IPIS)

Cartographie des motivations derrière les conflits: le cas du Katanga. Mise à jour : décembre 2007-mai 2008.

(28/07/2008 – IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/natural-resources.php?&lang=en>

This report is the second in a series of updates following an initial report on conflict motives in the Congolese province of Katanga. It analyses the most important security developments from December 2007 until May 2008.

Heeft Congo iets aan zijn mijnen?

(June 2008 – MO*magazine – IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/natural-resources.php?&lang=en>

DRC possesses huge reserves of minerals. Although the mineral prices increase on the international market, Congo hardly profits.

Activity Report 2007

(IPIS)

Jaarverslag 2007

(IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/natural-resources.php>

Fatal Transaction's submission on EIB Statement of Environmental and Social Principles and Standards.

(June 2008 - IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/corporate-social-responsibility.php>

Fatal Transactions and IPIS commented on the Bank's environmental and human rights policy and its approach on good governance and transparency.

Africa: Economic Outlook, Structural Obstacles.

(5/10/2008 – AfricaFocus)

<http://www.africafocus.org/docs08/ec0810.php>

Confining African countries to the production of primary commodities amounts to condemning them to remain locked in the commodity trap. Africa needs to create a competitive advantage in the production of manufactured products, as many other developing countries have done.

Africa: Continent to Get Harmonized Mining Code Soon.

(6/10/2008 – allAfrica – Public Agenda)

<http://allafrica.com/stories/200810061513.html>

A three-day workshop was organized in Accra by WACAM and OXFAM. The congress aimed at seeking civil society input into the drafting of the ECOWAS Mining Code.

US Senate Hearing: "Resource Curse or Blessing? Africa's Management of its Extractive Industries"

(7/10/2008 – EITI)

<http://eitransparency.org/node/460>

The U.S. role in addressing complicity of companies in human rights abuses in conflict areas.

(October – Global Witness)

http://www.globalwitness.org/media\_library\_detail.php/669/en/the\_u.s.\_role\_in\_addressing\_complicity\_of\_companies\_in\_human\_rights\_abuses\_in\_conflict\_areas

The US Senate Committee on Foreign Relations held 24 September a hearing on Resource Curse or Blessing? Africa's Management of its Extractive Industries.

MEPs want end to illegally imported timber.

(1/10/2008 – European Parliament)

http://www.europarl.europa.eu/news/public/story\_page/064-38426-273-09-40-911-20080930STO38425-2008-29-09-2008/default\_en.htm

MEPs last week "reluctantly" endorsed an international agreement on the tropical timber trade. Members were lukewarm about the accord as they think it insufficient to protect tropical rainforests and to allow consumers a choice when buying wood or furniture. MEPs urged the European Commission to swiftly bring forward legislation to ban illegally logged tropical timber from the European market.

Litige frontalier non résolu.

(1/10/2008 – Africa Energy Intelligence)

For consultation at request, or at IPIS library.

The border dispute between DRC and Uganda, with the Lake Albert oil in mind, still waits for a solution.

DRC*Rumble in the jungle.

(7/10/2008 – Miningmx)

<http://www.miningmx.com/mybk08/779451.htm>

There are signs the logjam in DRC – caused by an unsettling review of 61 licences – could be beginning to clear. The common perception is that the DRC holds a veritable treasure trove of minerals.

International mining companies in the Great Lakes Region

---

Camec to take stake in Chinese cobalt chemical plant.

(2/10/2008 – Mining Weekly)

http://www.miningweekly.com/article.php?a\_id=144374

Camec has agreed to buy a controlling interest in the Zhejiang Galico Cobalt & Nickel Materials Co, one of the largest chemical salt producers in China, specialising in the production of cobalt, nickel and copper inorganic salts and powders. In this way Camec is expanding vertically on the cobalt supply chain.

Camec takes $18.7m stake in Chinese plant.

(3/10/2008 - Financial Times)

<http://www.ft.com/cms/s/0/df2b64e2-90e3-11dd-8abb-0000779fd18c.html>

Chinese companies' ties with the DRC are typified by a simple exchange: cash and infrastructure in return for vast amounts of copper and other minerals.

Capital is also flowing in the other direction and Camec, the DRC-focused miner of copper and cobalt, yesterday bought a cobalt refining plant in China.

DRC

La province du Bas-Congo bientôt un eldorado minier.

(3/10/2008 – ACP - Digitalcongo.net)

<http://www.digitalcongo.net/article/53988>

The international miner BHP Billiton is planning to acquire a concession for the construction of a factory in Banana, and furthermore plans to exploit certain minerals in the province of Bas-Congo later on.

<http://www.unhcr.org/news/NEWS/48e4e4422.html>

Displaced people from Burundi's rival Hutu and Tutsi groups are being resettled side by side under a pilot project funded by the United Nations refugee agency aimed at seeking reconciliation and binding up the wounds of decades of bloody ethnic violence in the small central African country.

BURUNDI: Fighting for land.

(6/10/2008 – IRIN)

<http://www.irinnews.org/report.aspx?ReportID=80754>

Thousands of Burundians have returned home after years of refugee life in Tanzania, but finding shelter and enough land to farm remains a challenge.

RWANDA

Rwanda: Officials Meet on Small Arms Control.

(7/10/2008 – The New Times – allAfrica)

<http://allafrica.com/stories/200810070724.html>

A meeting to sensitize senior government officials on the development of a National Action Plan on arms control and management was held yesterday at Hotel Novotel in Kigali.

Other

Beyond Macroeconomic Stability: The Quest for Industrialization in Uganda.

(September 2008 – IMF)

<http://www.imf.org/external/pubs/cat/longres.cfm?sk=22359.0>

Uganda has registered one of the most impressive economic turnarounds of recent decades. But there is a strong sense in policy making circles that despite macroeconomic stability and reasonably well functioning markets, economic growth has not translated into significant structural transformation.
