IPIS LATEST REPORTS

From conflict resources to sustainable development: Memorandum by Fatal Transactions on the European Union's contribution to natural resource management in Africa

(July 2008 – Fatal Transactions - IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/corporate-social-responsibility.php>

IPIS drafted this publication for Fatal Transactions. The Memorandum looks specifically at the European Commission's contribution to a sustainable exploitation of natural resources in Africa and a sustainable supply chain. It also assesses its approach on conflict resources. The paper provides an analysis of the Commission's trade policy, development cooperation, foreign and security policy, cooperation under bilateral and multilateral agreements, humanitarian aid and financial assistance. It also takes a look at the Commission's view on integrating and implementing external actions in its internal policies (e.g. energy and environment) in order to promote a sustainable management of natural resources abroad.

Mapping Conflict Motives: Katanga update: December 2007-May 2008.

(25/06/2008 – IPIS)

Cartographie des motivations derrière les conflits: le cas du Katanga. Mise à jour : décembre 2007-mai 2008.

(28/07/2008 – IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/natural-resources.php?&lang=en>

This report is the second in a series of updates following an initial report on conflict motives in the Congolese province of Katanga. It analyses the most important security developments from December 2007 until May 2008.

Heeft Congo iets aan zijn mijnen?

(June 2008 – MO*magazine – IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/natural-resources.php?&lang=en>

DRC possesses huge reserves of minerals. Although the mineral prices increase on the international market, Congo hardly profits.

Activity Report 2007

(IPIS)

Jaarverslag 2007

(IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/natural-resources.php>

Fatal Transaction's submission on EIB Statement of Environmental and Social Principles and Standards.

(IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/corporate-social-responsibility.php>

Fatal Transactions and IPIS commented on the Bank's environmental and human rights policy and its approach on good governance and transparency.

Democratic Republic of the Congo, mining contracts - state of affairs. The Congo wants to raise the profits of its mining sector.

(04/04/2008 – IPIS)

Congo, contract miniers - état des affaires. Le Congo veut accroître ses rentrées du secteur minier.

(04/04/2008 – IPIS)

<http://www.ipisresearch.be/natural-resources.php>

In March the Congolese government published the final report of the Interministerial Commission for the Revisitation of Mining Contracts. This article discusses the findings of the report.

Prices of aluminum scrap have shot up due to a tremendous reduction in supply.

Cobalt blues, all right.

(8/08/2008 – Mineweb)

<http://www.mineweb.com/mineweb/view/mineweb/en/page36?oid=59137&sn=Detail>

A slumping cobalt price is further damaging the valuations of selected miners in the nickel and copper sub-sectors.

Copper stocks: ripe for action.

(7/08/2008 – Mineweb)

<http://www.mineweb.com/mineweb/view/mineweb/en/page36?oid=59067&sn=Detail>

(7/08/2008 – International Business Times)

<http://www.ibtimes.com/articles/20080807/copper-stocks-ripe-for-action.htm>

There is little question that the copper sub-sector offers the biggest diversion between metal prices (firm) and listed stocks (bombed out). Dollar prices for nickel, zinc, lead, and uranium have halved over the past 12 months or so, and listed stocks specialised in those areas have been severely punished. So far, the bloodbath prize goes to the badly crushed market value of zinc miners.
